

SYNTAX Diamond Information Systems (Abu Dhabi, UAE) wants to employ

“Senior Informatica Consultant”

Mandatory Requirements:

- Minimal 4 years of experience in implementing Data Integration/ Data Quality/ MDM/ Masking solutions with an overall experience of 5 years implementing ETL / DWH / BI projects
- Successfully implemented a complete end-to-end Data Warehousing project
- Experience in performing data warehouse ETL development tasks for large projects (ETL development, stored procedures development, SQL optimization)
- Extensive experience with Informatica ETL development and application troubleshooting, workload management, performance tuning. Experience working with high volume transactions is desired
- Experience in developing and implementing best practices in ETL specifics to process control, exception management in an EDW environment
- Experience in developing and implementing complex maps on a high data volume project (multiple TB of data) in large scale data conversion effort
- Experience in solving Data Quality problems through profiling, design Data Quality logic to cleanse the data
- Experience in using the Standardization, Labeler, Parser, Classifier, Match, Merge, Comparison, Association, Consolidation and Exception transformations to implement Data Quality Solutions
- Experience in installation and configuration of the Informatica Platform
- Experience in understanding the source applications, business expectations and design the Integration/ Data Quality logics
- Experience in designing the trust, match sets, match process using fuzzy as well as exact logics to identify duplicates and merge using auto and manual process
- Experience working with multiple applications with Oracle, Sybase, DB2 and SQL Server as databases

Optional Requirements:

- Experience in synchronizing the golden records to applications
- Experience in designing the queries and packages for hub access
- Experience in designing the IDD interface for MDM hub
- Knowledge of SIF interface and SAM
- Experience in Data Masking / Data Archiving
- Proven record of Data Modeling Experience
- Deliver business and application specific consulting services
- Supporting the pre-sale process as well as client communication

Skills & Attributes

- Customer facing profile with excellent oral and written communication skills;
- Strong problem solving skills and optimization technique;
- Demonstrated project management experience and understanding of best practice methodology

- Commitment to customer milestones, deadlines and service levels
- Must be able to work on multiple projects simultaneously, meet project deadlines and work under tight timelines.

Responsibilities

- Pre-sales activities for positioning Informatica Products to customer requirements
- Technical Presentations and live demonstrations of Informatica Products
- Implementation of Informatica PowerCenter, Data Quality, MDM & ILM Products in large-scale data warehouse, data migration, operational data integration, test data management, data privacy and data archiving projects
- Preparing scope of work documents, time and resource estimations
- Preparing solution designs, implementation plans
- Development of Informatica data integration mappings, workflows during project implementations
- Implement Data Quality initiatives and integrate with PowerCenter mappings and MDM cleanse process
- Implement MDM solution for generating the system of records
- Installation and configuration of Informatica Products, preparing backup and high availability plans

Candidates shall send their CV to (hr@syntax.ae) indicating the position (SXD_INF).

The applications will be handled with high confidentiality.